Support the YAMs

(Young Appalachian Musicians) and enjoy traditional music, stories, refreshments, and your neighbors. Sit by the fire in a 140-year-old farmhouse and listen to stories told by local storytellers like Robert Perry (former moonshiner), Dennis Chastain, Nick Hallman, and Lib Porter. Hear some of our best local, traditional musicians including some of our YAM instructors and kids. Enjoy delicious home-baked goodies and visit with your friends and neighbors all while helping out over 300 Young Appalachian Musicians.

Hosted at the home of
Ed and Betty McDaniel
792 Holly Springs School Rd,
Pickens, SC, 29671

Contact us ahead of time at 864-878-4257 or mcdanibw@bellsouth.net to reserve your place at a session, or get a ticket from a YAM or YAM school (Holly Springs, AR Lewis, Ambler, Hagood, Liberty, Pickens Elementary, and Pickens Middle School)

Your donation of $10 or more per person will benefit the YAM Program.
